

Palm Beach Post Staff Writer

Wednesday, January 23, 2008

Music students get venue at Café Copenhagen: Local music students have an opportunity to perform for the public.

Café Copenhagen, at 2123 South U.S. 1 in Jupiter, is scheduling students on Sundays between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m., weather permitting. The venue is the courtyard just south of the café.

Chef-owner Christian Cotton started his 'Music is Soul Food for Teens' program about six months ago, he said.

"I love my business, but I wanted to see what else I could do to enrich my life," Cotton said. "It's easy-listening and self-expression music. Getting a chance to perform in front of people is the main goal."

Music teacher Fred Capitelli is helping coordinate the schedule. For information, call him at (561) 575-0576.

"It's open to students from grammar school through college," Capitelli said. "Anybody who wants to get in front of an audience.

"Solo, duet, whatever they want to do. The music would be something that would fit a Sunday brunch."

Joe Bonikowski is a staff writer for Neighborhood Post. Reach him at (561) 820-3031. Send faxes to (561) 820-3021.